

TANENBAUM TAKES A NIGHT OFF!

2018 SPONSORSHIP PROPOSAL

AT COMIC STRIP LIVE Hosted by Mike Rakosi

September 27, 2018

1568 2nd Avenue

New York, NY 10028

Join us in celebrating 25 Years of Combating Religious Prejudice as Tanenbaum Takes a Night Off!

For more than 25 years, Tanenbaum has been at the forefront—addressing some of our most serious issues from religious prejudice and hate, to creating safer and inclusive learning and work environments for all. In today’s divided political and cultural climate, this work is more critical than ever. Although we take our work very seriously, we know how to have a good time.

We invite you to join us for Tanenbaum Takes a Night Off! on September 27, 2018 at Comic Strip Live (located at 1562 2nd Avenue). Hosted by the slightly wicked but always entertaining Mike Rakosi, this is sure to be another exciting night to remember.

Sponsoring Tanenbaum’s Comedy Night benefits the programs that ensure we’re all treated fairly and are safe. Tanenbaum trains and guides employers in thoughtful inclusion of people from diverse religions in their workforce. We educate and support health care professionals about the importance of understanding how a person’s faith can influence their health care decisions. We develop innovative materials for educators and parents that defuse stereotypes and promote respect for difference. And we organize and support a global network of grassroots Peacemakers in Action who create cultures of peace in areas of conflict.

By sponsoring Tanenbaum Takes a Night Off!, you will be an integral partner in helping us to pursue peace, while having a good laugh in the process!
