Health Care Programming on Conscientious Care: Basics of Bahá'í

On Monday, December 6th from 9am to 10am ET, Tanenbaum's Health Care team will be joined by Dr. Sina Firouzi (One Medical) to discuss the most recent addition to Tanenbaum's Medical Manual for Religio-Cultural-Cultural Competence - a chapter focused on Bahá'í religious beliefs and practices. Previously, the Medical Manual covered the beliefs and practices of ten religious traditions. However, with the generous support of Steve Sarowitz, Tanenbaum's Health Care team has been able to add a brand new chapter on the Bahá'í faith.

Join us for this webinar to explore Tanenbaum's Fifteen Trigger Topics, or the fifteen areas of patient care where religion could become salient for patients, the basic tenets of the Bahá'í faith, what the Medical Manual covers, and how to use it. For more information please contact Maria McQuade at mmcquade@tanenbaum.org.
