

TANENBAUM

30th

IMAGINE — CREATE — BUILD

Divinely Inspired: Celebrating our Differences through Art

On February 28th, Tanenbaum will launch its 30th anniversary with a cocktail reception and art auction at the Rubin Museum of Art. A unique collection of art, created by artists from around the globe who are inspired by their diverse faiths, will be on exhibit and offered for purchase through a silent auction to benefit Tanenbaum's programmatic work.

Divinely Inspired Sponsorship Package ($5,000)

- Ten tickets to exclusive reception and silent auction with early admission
- Logo on website, print and electronic materials, social media posts on Twitter, LinkedIn, Facebook, and Instagram
- Recognition on online auction pages and promotions
- Acknowledgment from the podium
- Inclusion in all press releases
- First to Know* status on all events and resources

For more information, please contact: nwolfe@tanenbaum.org

First to Know* status provides priority notification for all events as well as any new resources and publications