

Tanenbaum's 30th Anniversary: Imagine. Create. Build.

In 1992, Tanenbaum's founder Dr. Georgette F. Bennett imagined a world that included and respected people of all faiths and none. Three decades later, Tanenbaum continues to build practical programs that bring this vision to life.

Click here to learn more about our upcoming year of celebration.

One Decade of the Tanenbaum Membership Program

This year marks the 10th anniversary of Tanenbaum's Membership Program! A decade later, and the Tanenbaum community comprises a truly impressive global network of organizations and individuals committed to building more inclusive workplaces.

The Workplace team thanks each of you for being a part of this journey. We look forward to another 10 years of advancing religious diversity, equity, and inclusion.

Welcome to our Newest Members!

Tanenbaum would like to welcome its newest Members:

- Interpublic Group at the Associate Level
- Equitable, Fidelity, H&K Strategies, Royal Caribbean, Takeda & Walmart at the Partner Level
- Cushman & Wakefield at the Leader Level

They join a growing community of corporate actors committed to advancing religious diversity and inclusion in the workplace.

Upcoming Holidays

While our minds still might be on the piles of snow or the memories of the bygone winter holidays, the spring celebrations of 2022 are now fast approaching. Like the winter season, the spring holidays present amazing opportunities to celebrate the diversity of religion in your workplace.

For more information, please consult our Fact Sheets on holidays such as the Lunar New Year, Holi, Naw Ruz, Vaisakhi, Passover, Easter, and Ramadan.

Photo: Mak

Join Tanenbaum at the Forum on Workplace Inclusion

The Forum On Workplace Inclusion and Augsburg University are pleased to present the 2022 annual conference, themed "Solving for X: Tackling Inequities in a World of Unknowns." This year the Forum will be held online from April 5-7, 2022. Join Tanenbaum, diversity and inclusion practitioners, and professionals worldwide to explore how we address complex challenges, changes, and systemic inequities. Tanenbaum's Workplace team will be presenting on April 5th on the topic of antisemitism and Islamophobia. Registration is open now – we hope to see you at the Forum! #IncludeReligion #WorkplaceForum2022

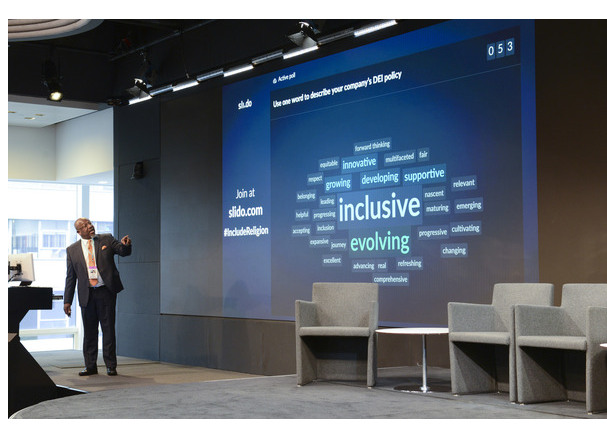

See You at the Summit

Save the date! Tanenbaum's 6th Annual Religious Diversity Leadership Summit (the Summit) will again be held virtually in 2022.

The Summit will take place on Tuesday, May 17th, and Wednesday, May 18th.

Additional details, including registration and programming information to follow shortly.

Tanenbaum CEO, Rev. Mark Fowler at the Summit

Upcoming Tanenbaum Events

There's always something interesting happening at Tanenbaum! See below for upcoming events from other departments that may be of interest to you and your networks – please feel free to share widely.

Friday, February 25, 2022, 12pm – 1pm (ET)

Tanenbaum's Health Care team will explore the relationship between COVID-19 and religion, examining the different beliefs and practices of religious communities. Questions to be explored include:

- How has religious life been affected by COVID-19?
- What practices have religious communities engaged in to reduce the spread of transmission?
- How have different religious communities responded to legislative and lifestyle changes due to COVID-19?
- What steps can religious communities take to reduce the risk of transmission?

Friday, March 25, 2022, 12pm – 1pm (ET)

Tanenbaum's Health Care team will facilitate an exploration of the relationship between religion, mental health, and how different communities treat and respond to mental health issues. Topics to be covered include:

- How do different religions understand and respond to mental health issues? How does this compare to conventional treatment?
- Is spiritual treatment of mental health issues more effective than other techniques?
- How can religious communities support followers who suffer from mental health issues?

For any questions, more information, or to sign up, please contact healthcare@tanenbaum.org

Photo: J. Kelly Brito

Exclusive Screenings for Black History Month & Women's History Month

Looking for impactful programming for Black History Month and Women's History Month? Tanenbaum can help. We are pleased to announce our partnership with Odyssey Impact to connect you to exclusive, custom screenings of their documentaries, Descended from The Promised Land: The Legacy of Black Wall Street and Stranger/Sister. Using a mix of film, deep-dive discussion, and immersive events, Odyssey Impact will help advance your organization's unique DEI goals across a range of stakeholders – from employees to clients, customers, and community members.

Learn more about how to leverage these resources here.

Complete the McKenzie-Delis Review

Tanenbaum is proud to serve as a Review Committee Member of the McKenzie-Delis Review – originally launched in the UK, it is the first-ever comprehensive review of corporate practices against 10 facets of workplace diversity and inclusion in the United States. This diagnostic survey will help provide a clearer understanding of how organizations are reporting, measuring, and acting across this comprehensive set of diversity facets. Read more about the McKenzie-Delis Review here.

Interested in participating? Please contact Michelle Audette (michelle@mckenziefelisfoundation.com), Managing Director of the McKenzie-Delis Foundation, for more information.

TANENBAUM | 55 Broad Street, New York, NY 10004 | 212.967.7707

Share this email:

Manage your preferences | Opt out using TrueRemove®

Got this as a forward? Sign up to receive our future emails.

View this email online.

55 Broad Street
New York, NY | 10004 US

This email was sent to .
To continue receiving our emails, add us to your address book.

