McKenzie Delis Review's US Report is Available Now!

Tanenbaum recently had the honor of serving as a member of the US McKenzie Delis Review Committee, assisting with efforts to better understand how some of the largest corporations in the United States are addressing religious diversity and inclusion (D&I) in the workplace.

The McKenzie-Delis Review's US Report is a groundbreaking report on diversity and inclusion in the US workplace. The report provides a comprehensive review of how the country's largest employers are addressing and prioritizing their efforts across the ten facets of workplace D&I – ethnicity, gender, age, nationality, mental health, sexual orientation, socio-economic status, disability, religion, and parenthood.

Thanks for Joining Us at the Forum!

We were delighted to see names and companies we recognized attending Tanenbaum's session at The Forum On Workplace Inclusion's annual conference "Solving for X: Tackling Inequities in a World of Unknowns." This year, Assistant Director of the Workplace Program Cameron Smith and Senior Workplace Program Associate Nina Boe presented on addressing Antisemitism and Islamophobia in the workplace.

On July 21st, Nina will present alongside Jean-Marie Navetta, Director of Learning and Inclusion at PFLAG, to discuss challenges and opportunities at the intersection of religion and LGBTQIA+ topics in the workplace. More information will be shared closer to the date. Please feel free to reach out to Nina (nboe@tanenbaum.org) for any additional questions.

Peacebuilding Webinar

On Monday, March 14, 2022, Tanenbaum's Peacebuilding Program and the Network for Religious and Traditional Leaders showcased examples of women of faith advancing economic development as part of the 66th session of the Commission on the Status of Women (CSW). The event highlighted how each speaker works to improve local economies by creating employment for women and young women in all their diversities. Click here to learn more!

Tanenbaum's Health Care Webinar Series Continues

The Tanenbaum Health Care program's informational webinar series 'Conscientious Care Conversations' continues. Join us as we address the intersection of religious and LGBTQ identities.

Tanenbaum's 30th Anniversary: Imagine. Create. Build.

In 1992, Tanenbaum's founder Dr. Georgette Bennett imagined a world that included and respected people of all faiths and none. Three decades later, Tanenbaum continues to build practical programs that bring this vision to life.

One Decade of the Tanenbaum Membership Program

This year marks the 10th anniversary of Tanenbaum's Membership Program! A decade on and the Tanenbaum community comprises a truly impressive global network of organizations and individuals committed to building more inclusive workplaces.

We would also like to take this opportunity to remind you that, as part of Tanenbaum Membership, you have access to the resources and services offered by Tanenbaum's Health Care program. In addition to fact sheets, resources on vaccination, and LGBTQ patient care, Tanenbaum's Health Care team can assist you with understanding and addressing the impact of religion's role on health care decision-making.

If you are interested in exploring how to tailor Membership benefits to access the Health Care program's sought-after insights, resources, and workshops, please reach out to our Health Care team, at healthcare@tanenbaum.org. For more information about Tanenbaum's Health Care program, click here.

The Workplace team thanks each of you for being a part of this journey. We look forward to another 10 years of advancing religious diversity, equity, and inclusion.
