

Welcome to our Newest Members!

Tanenbaum would like to welcome its newest Members:

- New Relic and Trimble at the Associate Level
- Omnicom and Spotify the Partner Level

They join a growing community of corporate actors committed to advancing religious diversity and inclusion in the workplace.

Meet Us at the Summit

Join us in Unlocking the Power of Difference at Tanenbaum's 7th annual Religious Diversity Leadership Summit (the Summit) on May 10, 2023 in-person or virtually! Generously hosted by Citi, this year's event will be held both in-person in lower Manhattan AND with a live-stream option.

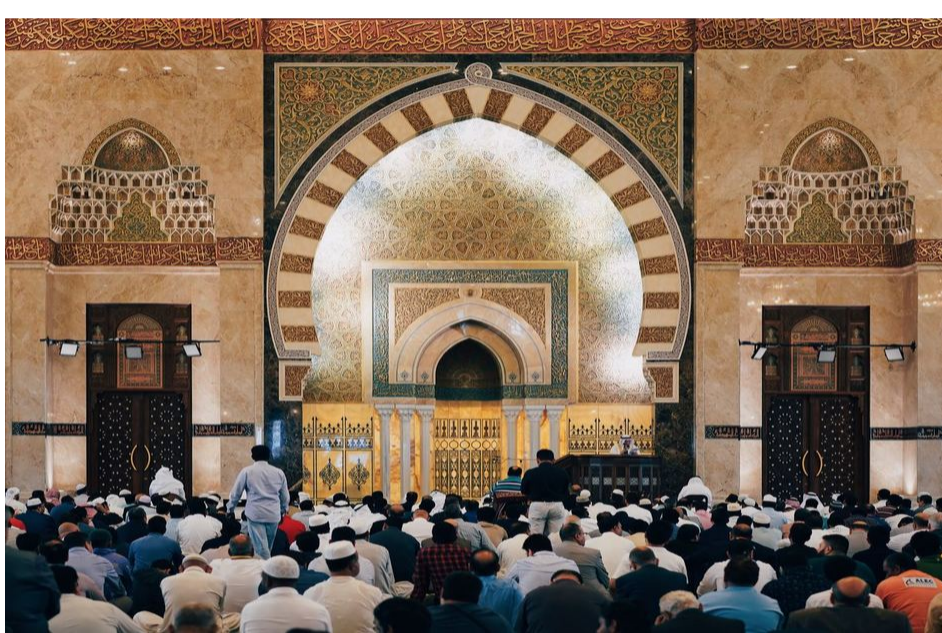

The Summit provides professionals of all levels with the unique opportunity to explore the topic of religious diversity, equity, and inclusion (DEI) in the workplace. This year's programming will feature something for everyone. Join us as we review the latest demographic information, unpack the evolving legal landscape, explore the latest in employee resource groups, and more!

As always, the Summit remains free to attend thanks to our generous sponsors.

Register now for in-person attendance or join us virtually!

Get excited for our programming by checking out last year's sessions on our YouTube playlist here!

Please email membership@tanenbaum.org with any questions

Join CEO Rev. Mark Fowler for a Webinar with Diversity Network

On April 18th at 11am EDT, join our CEO Rev. Mark Fowler for a webinar with Diversity Network entitled, "Religion at Work: Encouraging Multi-Faith Inclusion and Setting Up Spaces for Prayer." The webinar will discuss faith-based DEI efforts in the workplace, including creating quiet rooms for reflection, meditation, and prayer. Be sure to register for this exciting event.

(Photo: Imad Alassiry)

Upcoming Support Tanenbaum's Peacemakers in Action Network

Our Peacemakers in Action Network is a community of 29 religious peacebuilders working in 23 conflict areas worldwide. Next year our Peacemakers will gather from all over the world at the 8th Working Retreat, a week filled with collaborative trainings, community-building, and outreach. The 2024 Working Retreat program includes trauma healing, network support, and peacebuilding pivots in the face of changing circumstances.

Be on the lookout for opportunities to get involved in this important event by supporting our upcoming crowdsourcing fundraising campaign.

In the meantime, check out the inspirational Peacemakers in Action podcast.

Save the Date! 2023 Peace Made Possible Gala

Tanenbaum's Peace Made Possible Gala returns to the Edison Ballroom in New York on October 17, 2023.

Save the date and stay tuned for more information! In the meantime, re-live last year's Gala here.

Inspirational Reads: Celebrating Sarah Eagle Heart, 2021 Summit Keynote

In January, Senior Workplace Program Associate Nina Boe attended a book event at The Strand in New York City. The evening included a conversation between 2021 Summit keynote speaker Sarah Eagle Heart (Oglala Lakota) and her sister, Emma Eagle Heart-White, moderated by actor and activist Piper Perabo. The sisters discussed their book, Warrior Princesses Strike Back: How Lakota Twins Fight Oppression and Heal Through Connectedness.

In their memoir, Sarah and Emma share their experiences growing up on Pine Ridge Indian Reservation, in school, and combating bias in their personal and growing lives. Combined with self-help strategies, decolonial therapy, and Indigenous activism, the Eagle Heart twins explore individual and intergenerational healing through their lived experiences and shared heritage.

The book was released in January 2023 and is available on Feminist Press.

(Photo: Nina Boe)

Share this email:

Manage your preferences | Opt out using TrueRemove®

Got this as a forward? Sign up to receive our future emails.

View this email online.

200 Broadway
New York, NY | 10038 US

This email was sent to .
To continue receiving our emails, add us to your address book.

emma