

Teach respect. Transform your classroom. K-12 Professional Development from Tanenbaum January/June 2026

FREE PD for educators with NYC Public Schools

Lowering Barriers: Increasing Confidence for Teaching About Religion and Religious Identity

Monday, January 26, 2026

9:00am – 10:00am Register Here

Thursday, June 4, 2026

1:00pm – 2:00pm Register Here

Learn strategies for teaching about religion that are welcoming and fun!
Understand how to shift conversations about religion from tense to inviting.
Apply practices to make teaching about religion feel enjoyable and inclusive.

Awards CTLE credit.

Respectful Curiosity: Exploring Differences in Religious Identity

Monday, January 26, 2026

1:00pm – 2:00pm Register Here

Thursday, June 4, 2026

10:00am – 11:00am Register Here

Learn strategies to build respect for religious differences in the classroom.
Understand how religion and religious identity shape individuals and community.
Apply instructional practices highlighting the intersections of religion and identity.

Awards CTLE credit.

Peace in Practice: A Narrative-based Approach to Teaching Empathy

Monday, January 26, 2026

10:30-11:30am Register Here

Learn how to teach and practice empathetic listening for productive dialogue.
Understand how narratives can be used to facilitate high-stakes communication.
Apply social-emotional learning tools to the Israel-Palestine conflict and beyond.

In collaboration with the Parents Circle Families Forum. Not CTLE eligible.

Click, scan, or email Education@Tanenbaum.org to learn more about our programs

